The Sam & Max Save the World Update Pack is the third DLC for Sam & Max Save the World, the point-and-click adventure game. It was released on March 4, 2012, only for Windows and was available for purchase on Steam. Contents show Character roster The Sam & Max Save the World Update Pack contains twenty-seven characters, divided into the following categories: Sam & Max Other characters The DLC also includes a brand new career, for some characters, and new campaign missions, for some of them. Save the World Sam & Max is a puzzle adventure game that was released on May 16, 2009 by Telltale Games and developed by Telltale Games and the Season Zero team, who previously worked on Sam & Max: Freelance Police, Sam & Max: The Devil's Playhouse, and Sam & Max: Save the World. It is based on the popular episodic comic series of the same name, written by Steve Purcell and illustrated by Gary Phillips. The game was released on PC, Mac, and Linux. An iPhone and iPad version is in development. Gameplay The gameplay is a mixture of point-and-click and adventure game elements. The player can access many areas of the game world, choose what to do and where to go. The game gives the player several actions to choose from, often allowing the player to choose more than one action on some occasions, although it doesn't allow the player to fail at anything (including saving the world itself). In order to save the world the player must learn the twists and turns of Sam & Max's adventures while also dealing with the various plots and items in the game's world. Plot Sam & Max Save the World takes place in the year 1984, and takes place after Sam & Max Save the World: The Real Sewer. The game takes place within the same universe as the previous games in the series, but in a world that is altered by Sam & Max's actions. Sam and Max are presented with several new items and opportunities to expand on their arsenal, with a few new characters as well. The world has changed considerably from the series' previous storyline, resulting in a much larger world 82157476af
